

The Movie Vivo

Yaqeen said al daffa'ei

Today discussion

About the movie

About the characters.

The plot/ my review

A bout the movie:

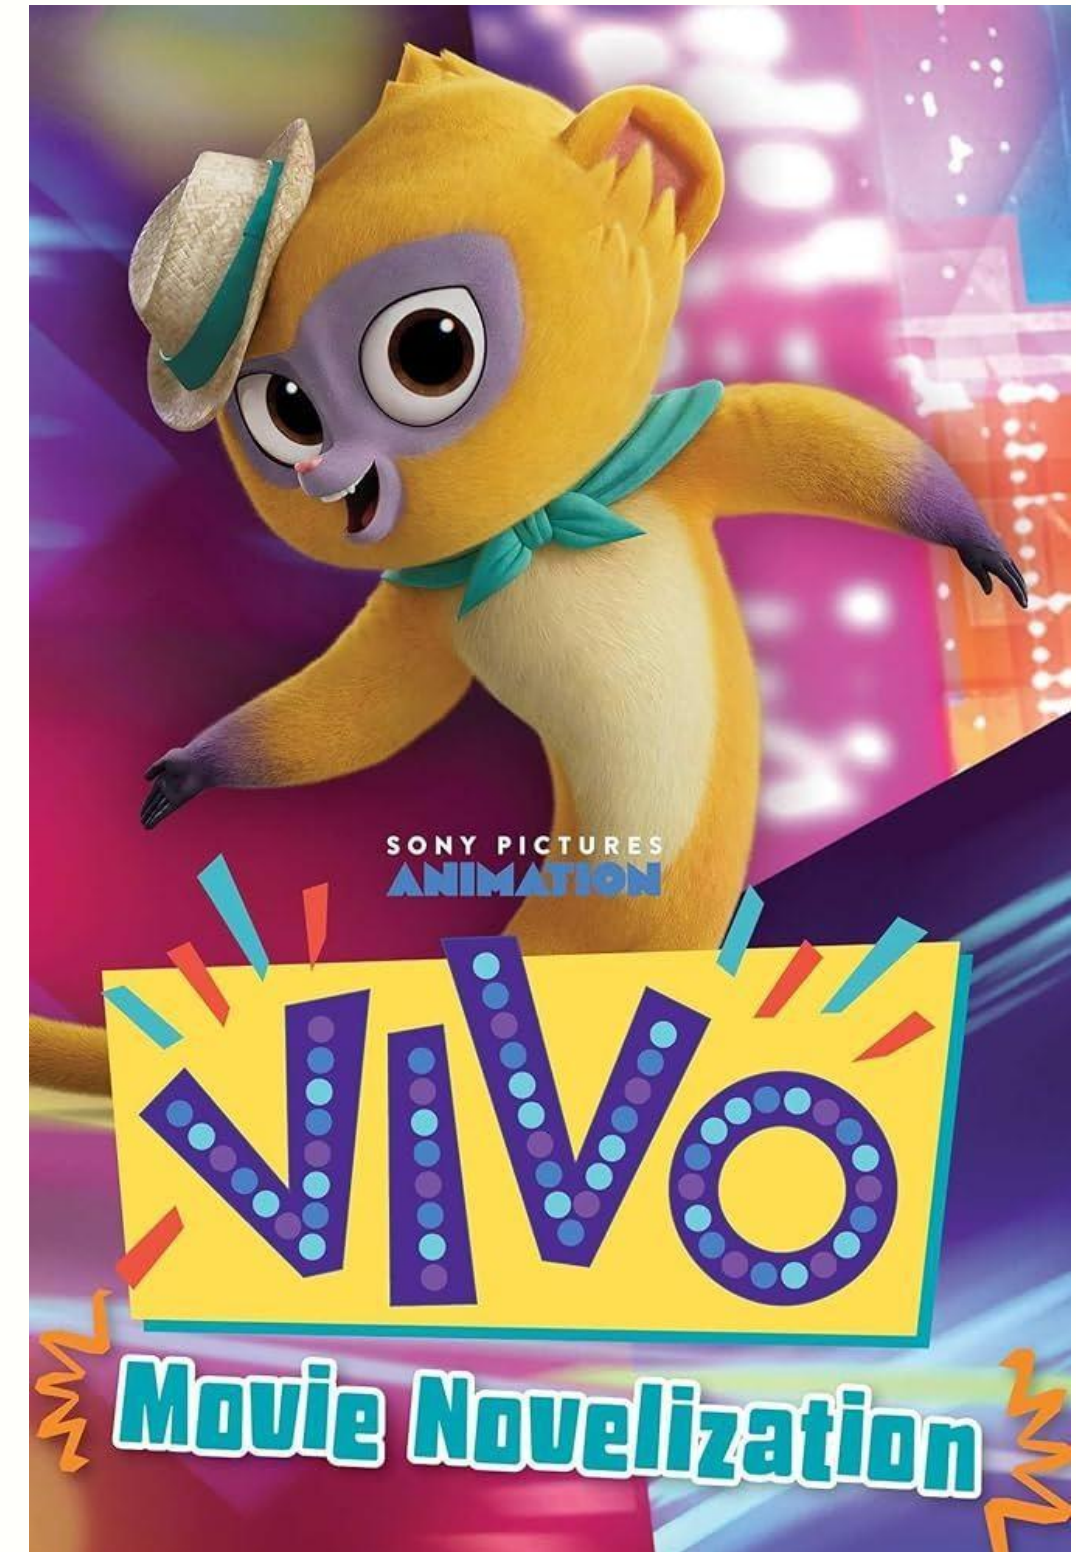

vivo is a vibrant and heartwarming musical film that tell the story of a unique friendship between a musically gifted kinkajou named vivo and Andrés an old man who loved to preform since he was young. directed by kirk demicco and co-directed by Brandon Jeffords, vivo is a collaboration between Sony pictures animation and Netflix, released in 2021

About the characters

vivo: is the protagonist, a talented and charming kinkajou with a passion for music. vivo is loyal to his owner, Andres, and shares his love for performing on the street of Havana. after Andres passing, vivo embarks on a bold adventure to deliver a love letter from Andres to his long-lost love, Marta. Through the journey, vivo learn about friendship, bravery, and the importance of following your dreams

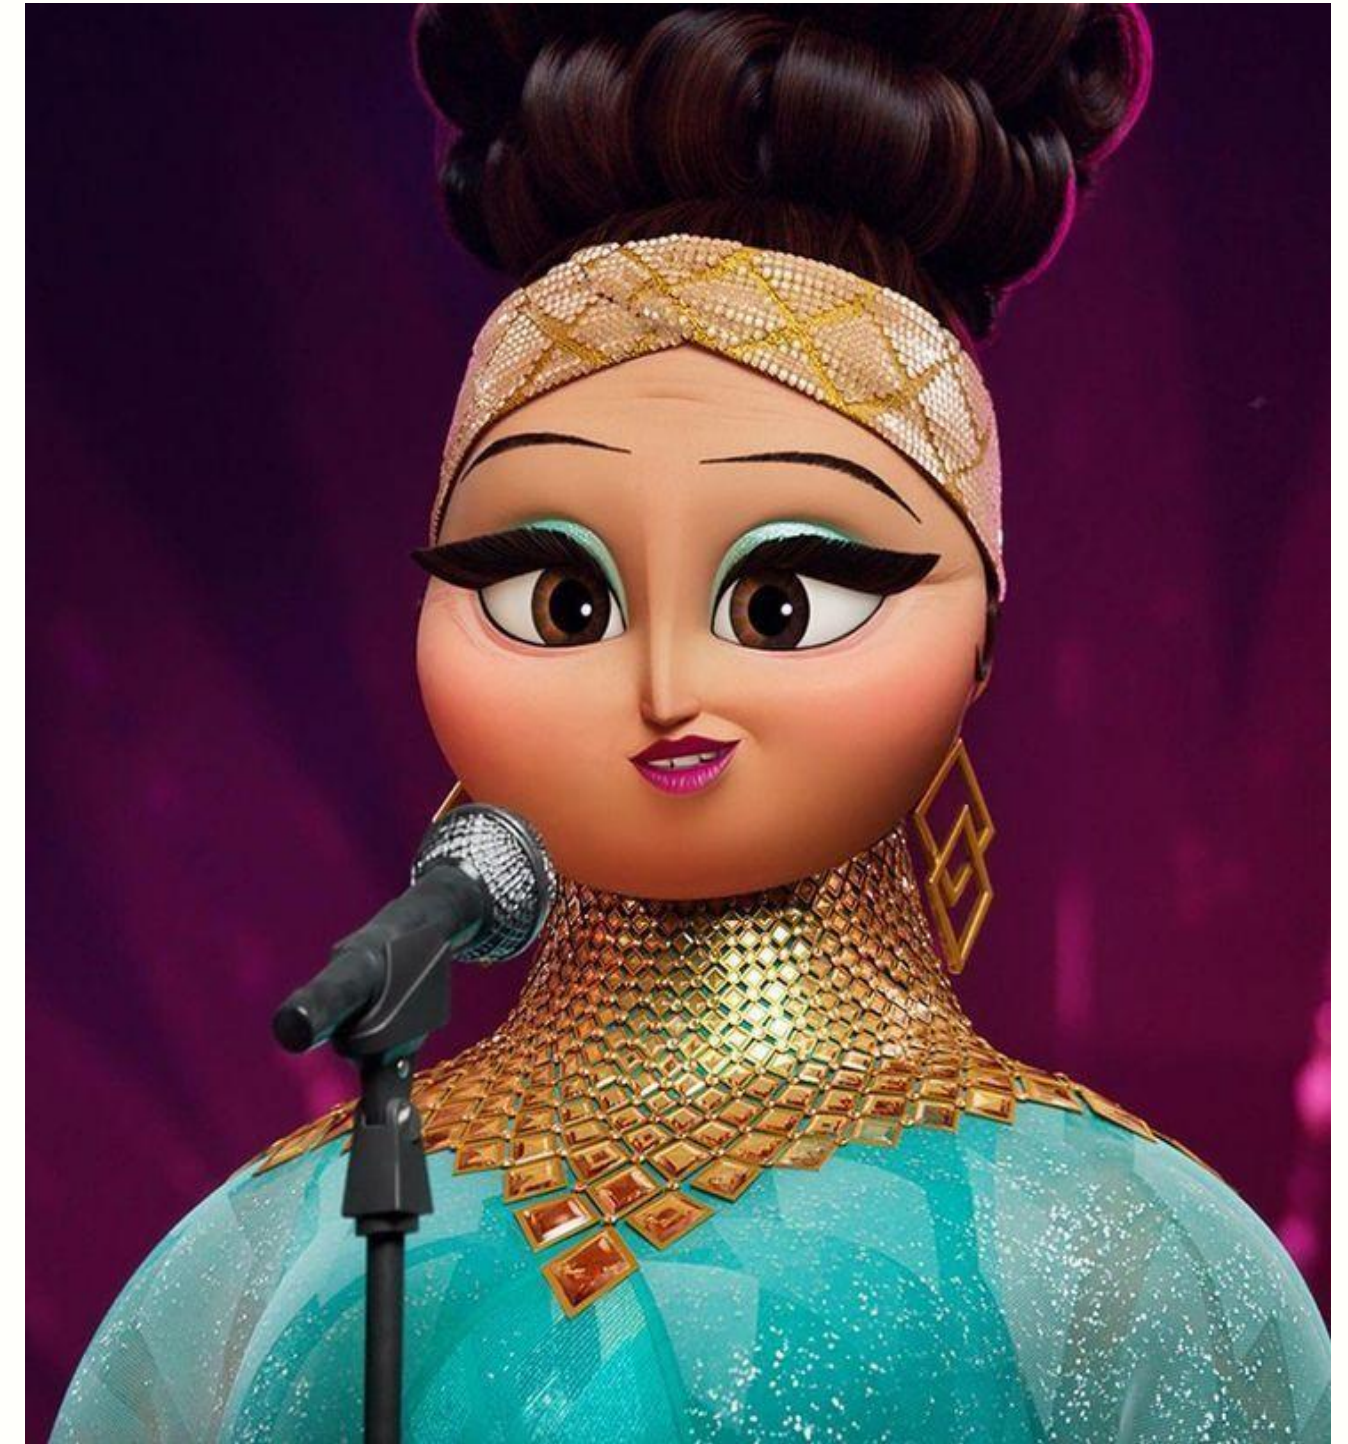

Andres is vivo precious owner and a talented musician who loved to perform with vivo on the street of Havana. Andres is a kindhearted and romantic soul who has a so much love for Marta, a famous singer. After writing a heartfelt love letter for Marta, Andres pass away before he can deliver it, that's when vivo bravery came along the way to fulfill his owner final wish.

Gabi is a young Cuban American girl who became Vivo's partner on his journey to deliver the love letter, she is a talented singer with big dreams on performing on stage. Regardless of how young she is, Gabi is independent on herself and refuses to let anything get in her way of helping Vivo fulfill his mission. Her friendship with Vivo brings out her caring and adventurous side, as they face challenges on their journey.

Marta is a famous singer and Andres long lost love. Marta was unaware of Andrés feelings for her until vivo delivers his love letter. Her character represents flexibility and the power of music to rise above and connects people across distances and time. she serves as a source of inspiration for vivo and gabi as they journey to reunite her with Andrés's love letter.

1. The film starts in the lively streets of Havana, where Vivo, a musically talented kinkajou, performs with his owner Andrés, captivating audiences with their music.

2. Andrés receives a letter from Marta, his long-lost love, inviting him to her farewell concert in Miami. getting more excited about the invitation he remembered writing her a love letter where she expressed his love for her but did not get the chance to tell her.

3. Andrés tragically falls ill and passes away before delivering the letter to Marta. Determined to fulfill Andrés's final wish, vivo discovers the unfinished letter and embarks on a brave journey to deliver it to Marta in Miami.

4. Along the way, Vivo meets Gabi, a spirited young girl who dreams of becoming a singer. Gabi agrees to help Vivo deliver the letter, and they form a strong bond as they face various challenges and blocks together.

5. Vivo and Gabi encounter eccentric characters and embark on exciting adventures as they travel from Havana to Miami, including encounters with pigeons, a con artist named Lutador, and a mysterious sea creature.

6. Upon reaching Miami, Vivo and Gabi finally meet Marta and deliver Andrés's love letter to her, moving her with Andrés's heartfelt words.

7. Touched by Vivo and Gabi's determination, Marta decides to honor Andrés's memory by performing his music at her farewell concert.

8. In the end, Vivo, Gabi, and Marta come together on stage to perform a heartfelt tribute to Andrés, celebrating love, friendship, and the power of music to unite people.

9. The film ends with Vivo and Gabi returning to Havana, where they continue to share their passion for music and friendship, keeping Andrés's memory alive through their performances and adventures.

Thank you